

Update on Daca/Dapa

Potential DAPA & Expanded DACA at SCOTUS Timeline

JANUARY 15, 2016

SCOTUS takes up
DAPA and expanded
DACA

LATE JUNE 2016

SCOTUS could make a decision on DAPA
and expanded DACA

Possible oral arguments in Washington, D.C.

APRIL 2016

DAPA (parents)

Unauthorized parents of children who are United States citizens or legal permanent residents born on or before Nov. 20, 2014. To qualify, parents must have been in the United States since Jan.1, 2010.

DACA (children)

Unauthorized immigrants born after June 15, 1981 who were brought to the United States before their 16th birthday and have been in the country since June 15, 2007.

Expanded DACA (children)

Unauthorized immigrants brought to the United States as children before January 2010.

Dapa: 10,000

Daca +: 3000

Daca: 4,000

The Supreme Court announced a 4-4 decision in a case challenging President Obama's plan to shield as many as five million unauthorized immigrants from deportation and to allow them to work in the United States.

The decision leaves in place an appeals court ruling BLOCKING the Implementation of DACA+ & DAPA

THIS IS NOT ABOUT DACA

The original DACA program that was announced in 2012,
is separate from
this lawsuit and there is no change to DACA.

BEWARE OF SCAMS & NOTARIOS

The fact that the Supreme court decided to take up the case does not mean that people are able to apply for DAPA or Expanded DACA yet.
