

CHILD DEVELOPMENT AND CARE

COMPLETE UNITS TOWARDS YOUR ASSOCIATE TEACHER PERMIT AT NO COST*

UC Merced Extension's Child Development and Care series meets the academic requirement for an early childhood associate teacher permit from the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

Courses are free to attend for those who qualify. In addition, you could earn up to 12-semester units towards the Associate Teacher Permit.

WHO CAN APPLY

Eligible local residents who currently possess a GED or High School diploma.

HOW TO APPLY

- 1) Complete Merced Adult School Registration Form
www.tinyurl.com/masregform
(Select Child Development Permit Courses)
- 2) Attend Mandatory Information Session
Wednesday, January 19, 2022 | 6 - 6:45 PM
Zoom Link: <https://tinyurl.com/cdcinfosession>

YOU WILL

- Gain career development and college level coursework through this four-course series
- Earn twelve units of lower division credit at University of California, Merced

COURSES

EDUC Xoo6 Child Development for Education Professionals
EDUC Xoo7 Child, Family, & Community for Education Professionals
EDUC Xoo8 Introduction to Curriculum in ECE
EDUC Xo21 Culture and Diversity for Education Professionals

GOLD COHORT DATES

EDUC Xoo6 & Xoo7: Feb. 8, 2022 to April 3, 2022
EDUC Xoo8 & Xo21: April 5, 2022 to May 29, 2022

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

- Teacher Assistants
- Preschool Teachers
- K-8 After School Enrichment
- Daycare Provider
- District paraprofessionals
- Childcare Worker or instructional aides

INSTRUCTOR

Monica Adrian, M.Ed. SpEd Early Childhood

UC MERCED
EXTENSION
EDUCATION PROGRAMS

